Problem 1
Let $\text{size}(f)$ be the size (in number of gates) of the smallest circuit that computes $f$.

Prove: for all sufficiently large $n$, there exists $f : \{0,1\}^n$ such that $n^3 \leq \text{size}(f) \leq n^3 + 10n$. 